CHRISTMAS QUIZ

SCENE ON TWO

● Christmas is traditionally a crucial stage of any season and usually has a fair bearing on how the promotion and relegation issues will be decided by the end of the season.

Over the next six days, most sides will be in action three times and that's nine important points at stake.

After today's meeting with Bolton, Leeds open 1983 with trips to the clubs who were relegated from the First Division with us last season, Middlesbrough on Saturday and Wolves next Monday.

Both these teams figured in goalless draws at Elland Road earlier in the season and while Wolves have been around the top of the table throughout the first-half of the campaign, Middlesbrough have shown occasional glimpses of form but have mainly tended to struggle for points.

A good unbeaten run that coincided with Malcolm Allison's arrival at Ayresome Park ended a month ago when Blackburn were 5-1 winners on Teesside and a week later Boro crashed 4-0 at Molineux.

Middlesbrough went into Christmas with the poorest defensive record at home in the Division . . . 20 goals conceded in nine matches. It's a different story at Wolverhampton though where Wolves had let in only nine goals, seven of those in their two home defeats by Fulham and Leicester.

● After a bright start to the season — they were second after the first half dozen matches — Grimsby

Town have slipped down the table in recent weeks although a good run over Christmas and the New Year could put the Mariners back among the leaders by the time they open the 1983 League programme at Elland Road on 15th January.

Striker Kevin Drinkell (inset), has proved to be one of the Second Division's top marksmen in the last few months, with two hat-tricks to his name already. Another Grimsby man with an eye for goals is midfielder Joe Waters who had notched up six in Town's 18 League games up to the start of this month.

● Peter Taylor has admitted that he has to rebuild at Derby if he is to get the side out of trouble at the foot of the table. And among the players he has been looking at in recent weeks is Chesterfield midfielder Danny Wilson.

Taylor made his first full major cash signing when he took Bobby Davison from Halifax recently. Davison, with 16 League and Milk Cup goals for the Shay club, was the target for a number of sides before Derby stepped in.

● There are still few signs of a surge up the table from Newcastle United who approached the Christmas games with a run of just one win in five matches. United had hoped to have Kevin Keegan back in their side after an eye injury received in a testimonial match kept him on the sidelines. But it could be a few weeks yet before the former England man is ready to return.

● Former Leeds man Carl Harris earned a recall to the Welsh squad a fortnight ago for the match in Yugoslavia when he replaced Swansea's Alan Curtis (pictured) another ex-Leeds man, who pulled out through injury.

HAVE A HAPPY AND TROUBLE-FREE NEW YEAR

The Elland Road terraces are open for spectators again this afternoon following their two-match closure by order of the Football Association. It is hoped that there will be no necessity in the future to have to close any part of the ground and while the club acknowledges the improvement in the behaviour of supporters at recent games, may we ask that this continues throughout the remainder of the season.

We welcome all spectators to Elland Road this afternoon. Enjoy the match and have a happy and trouble-free 1983.

EDDIE GRAY'S POINT OF VIEW...

We round off the old year at Elland Road this afternoon with our game against Bolton and nothing would be better than to finish off what has largely been a disappointing year for the club, in style.

A good win this afternoon would set us up for our two away fixtures over the New Year holiday at Middlesbrough on Saturday and Wolves next Monday. All these matches are important ones if we are to keep in touch with the sides above us in the table and it was disappointing that we were unable to make up ground from the last home game with Shrewsbury.

The result should never have been in doubt from the play we had in this game but again we were unable to finish off when victory was there for the taking.

I was delighted with the way Neil McNab came through his first match for us particularly as he'd only had a brief training session with the side before the Shrewsbury match.

We have put in a lot of effort in trying to strengthen the squad in recent weeks and were delighted that we were successful at last in obtaining Neil on loan from Brighton for a month.

I've felt for a while that we have needed a little more composure in the middle and hopefully Neil's experience will help young John Sheridan who has done so well since coming into the side.

At the moment we have Neil with us up to and including the Grimsby match next month and there are a number of things to sort out after that if the move is to become permanent.

In welcoming Bolton to Elland Road this afternoon, we realise that we are in for another hard game.

Bolton have picked up some useful results in recent weeks and need points to climb to safety at the foot of the table. Two familiar faces in their party today are likely to be John McGovern and Jeff Chandler.

Looking towards the New Year, my hope would be that we can start to string a run of good results together to threaten a promotion challenge over the next four months. 1982 was a disappointing and frustrating year for the club although from a personal point of view it has given me the chance to try to build something for the future and that is the aim of all of us at Elland Road.

On behalf of everyone at the club I would like to wish all our supporters a very happy New Year with the hope that you will stick with us in 1983.

NEW YEAR HOLIDAY

The Elland Road offices, including the Sports and Souvenir Shop will be closed for the New Year holiday on Saturday, 1st January and Monday 3rd January, and will re-open next Tuesday.

Seat tickets for the Cup-tie with Preston are available from the Elland Road Ticket Office and this will be open until 5 p.m. on Friday and from 9.15 a.m. next Tuesday. The Preston match is not all ticket and normal admission arrangements will apply.

Mr. M. Cussins
Chairman Leeds Utd F.C.
Elland Road,
Leeds.

Dear Manny,

In the light of last Saturday's game here and the previous publicity, I felt I must write to ask you to pass on to all your spectators who travelled here, our compliments and thanks for their behaviour.

As you may know, we have opened a club at the visitors end for exclusive use by them on match days and our Manager has said that your chaps were the best and most polite he has had all season - and that is not to criticise Chelsea and Newcastle fans who also behaved well.

Please let your people know that on that standard of behaviour shown on Saturday, Leeds Utd and their fans are welcome here any time.

Best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

A.L. Johnson
Chairman.

P.S. If you wish to use this publicity to support your club, I shall be delighted.

FOOTBALL COACHING IN YOUR OWN HOME

Danny Bergara's football career began at the age of fourteen in his native Uruguay, where he gained three international caps for his country. He then moved to Spain, where he was top goal scorer for five consecutive seasons with Seville and Mallorca.

In 1973, Danny came to England as a coach for Luton Town and Sheffield United. He then worked on the England Youth Programme and now he aims to coach you in your own home.

'The Positive Approach' is the first of Danny Bergara's 'Win Through Skill' series of television programmes, which Danny hopes will help, not only youngsters develop their skills, but anyone with a love of the game — even professional players.

BOLTON WANDERERS

Bolton will be hoping that the Christmas and New Year period brings a change of fortunes for a side that has been struggling around the foot of the Second Division since the season got underway.

Like Leeds, Bolton secured a new player-manager during the close season when John McGovern moved to Burnden Park to combine the roles after a highly successful playing career that included a brief spell here at Elland Road.

But it has largely been a disappointing start for McGovern who has seen Bolton struggle for points, particularly away from home in the last four months.

Coming into the holiday matches,

BOLTONFACT

● Bolton were one of three Second Division clubs without an away win after 18 games of the season. The side's only points in their travels had come from draws at Blackburn, Burnley, Cambridge and Derby.

Bolton were still looking for their first success away from home and had a meagre two goals to show for their efforts on their travels.

Signs that an improvement were underway appeared towards the end of last month when the team put together a five match unbeaten record that included home wins over Leicester and Charlton and away draws at Blackburn and Cambridge.

Apart from McGovern, Bolton have one other player with a strong Leeds connection . . . midfielder Jeff Chandler who moved on from Elland Road to Burnden Park fourteen months ago. He is likely to have a key role in Bolton's line-up this afternoon.

Several other names in the visitor's side today will be well known to United supporters. Bolton still have the nucleus of the side that spent a couple of seasons in the First Division up to two years ago . . . Jim McDonagh is in his second spell at Burnden Park after a period with Everton while central defender Paul Jones, highly rated midfielder Peter Reid and attacker Chris Thompson all played for the club in the higher strata.

BOLTONFACT

● Former Manchester City player Tony Henry was Wanderers' leading scorer coming into the Christmas fixtures with seven League and Milk Cup goals. Bolton's other goals this season have come from: Moores 4, Doyle, Hoggan 3, Thompson, Chandler, Foster, Whatmore 2, Reid and McGovern 1.

There are a trio of other names who have plenty of big-match experience. Full back Steve Whitworth won England caps while at Leicester before a move to Sunderland and Mike Doyle was the mainstay of Manchester City's defence for a number of years and joined Wanderers from Stoke almost twelve months ago. Tony Henry, Bolton's leading scorer over the first half of the season, also made a name for himself with Manchester City and was on the bench for City's 1981 FA Cup Final appearances against Tottenham. He cost Bolton a £125,000 signing fee towards the end of last

● The last meeting between the clubs was at Elland Road on February 9th 1980, a First Division game that ended in a 2-2 draw. Earlier in the season the sides drew 1-1 at Burnden Park.

● A Leeds player who likes playing against Bolton is Arthur Graham. He has scored in four of the five matches he has played against Wanderers.

● Leeds and Bolton have never previously played each other in the Second Division. All 36 previous meetings between the clubs have been in Division One although Bolton played Leeds City in Division Two in the 1908-09 and 1910-11 seasons.

● The last Christmas-time game between the clubs at Elland Road was on Christmas Eve 1932 when Leeds were winners of a high scoring game 4-3.

● Both clubs have usually found the net in Elland Road games. Leeds have scored in each of the 18 games with Bolton here while Bolton have failed to score on the ground only twice, in September 1946 and April 1960.

● Two former Leeds men could figure in the Bolton side today, Jeff Chandler and John McGovern. Other recent links between the clubs include Frank Worthington and Jimmy Armfield.

● Leeds' complete League record against Bolton reads:

	P	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	18	11	4	3	46	31
AWAY	18	1	4	13	14	43

season.

Midfielder David Hoggan came up through the Burnden Park junior sides to make his League debut at Bristol City in April 1980 and has played for the Scottish Under-21 squad and a youngster who has developed well recently is striker Wayne Foster who has played for the England youth side.

Experienced striker Ian Moores, previously with Stoke, Tottenham and Orient joined the Lancashire club on a free transfer during the summer when Bolton also signed defender Ray Deakin from Port Vale. Deakin was originally with Everton.

There's still time for Bolton to climb clear of trouble and they will be hoping to maintain their recent useful run over the holiday games in preparation for a difficult Third Round Cup-tie a week on Saturday at Arsenal.

FORM GUIDE

RESERVES BY COACH PETER GUNBY

Our young Reserves faced another big test a week before Christmas with the game at Manchester United against an experienced side that included England midfielder Ray Wilkins, making his comeback for Manchester United after a recent injury.

Considering the strength of the opposition, our youngsters came out of the match with plenty of credit despite the final 3-0 scoreline against us.

We held United to a goalless first-half and even when they scored in the second-half we battled away and were unfortunate not to get at least a goal back in reply.

We were under fairly heavy pressure but kept Manchester United out in the first-half with good defensive play when everyone worked hard. We did create two openings in the first-half and might have taken the lead when Wayne Roebuck had an opening but lost his balance while shooting. For all their attacking play, Manchester United did not carve out that many chances and when their goals came after half-time, the first two were from set pieces.

We went behind after 15 minutes of the second-half when they scored from a corner and their second goal after 25 minutes followed a free-kick with Wilkins scoring.

We made a change to our side midway through the second-half when Roger Eli came on as substitute for his first Central League appearance, replacing Roebuck who had worked hard up front. Eli played well and there were also good performances by our defence with Neil Aspin, Denis Irwin and Colin Thacker impressive and young trialist Philip Hughes in goal making some good saves against his former club. Roebuck and Tommy Wright battled hard up front and overall it was a fighting performance by our Juniors which promises well for the second-half of the season.

We re-arranged our away game at Blackburn Rovers and played at Ewood Park last Tuesday. A report on this match will appear in our next match programme for the Preston Cup game on Saturday week.

United Reserves v Manchester United: Hughes, Irwin, Aspin, Hinckcliffe, Thacker, Taylor, Peel, Hill, Sharkey, Roebuck, Wright. Sub: Eli.

● Our Juniors are without a fixture until the New Year but will be in action early in 1983 with their Youth Cup-tie at Tranmere Rovers early next month. Their next Northern Intermediate League game is scheduled for Fullerton Park on Saturday week when Sheffield United are our visitors.

ELLAND RD DAY~BY~DAY

November 28th

Newspaper reports link Frank Worthington with Sunderland and also suggest that Trevor Cherry is the man Bradford City are after as their new player-manager.

November 29th

Bolton are also reported to be interested in Worthington, pictured, while Sunderland manager Alan Durban confirms that he is interested in signing the United striker.

November 30th

It looks like Roker Park for Worthington who is expected to sign for Sunderland after undergoing a medical tomorrow.

December 1st

Worthington joins Sunderland. 'We wish him well at Roker Park,' says United manager Eddie Gray. Gwyn Thomas has a broken hand and is doubtful for United's game with leaders QPR at Elland Road on Saturday.

December 2nd

Eddie Gray hints that there could be new faces soon at Elland Road. 'I'm prepared to buy or exchange players if I think they can do a job here,' he says. 'But I'm not going to buy simply for the sake of it.'

December 3rd

Leeds call up the youngsters for the game with Rangers. United's 13-man squad for tomorrow's game includes Neil Aspin, John Sheridan and Mark Gavin. Missing though is Thomas, ruled out by his hand injury.

December 4th

All three youngsters play in the game with Rangers when the Elland Road terraces are closed as a result of the FA ban. Terry Connor misses the match because of severe stomach pains and United go down to a second half Clive Allen goal.

December 6th

United are looking north of the border in their search for new players. Assistant manager Jimmy Lumsden says: 'We've two in mind and I am optimistic that we can get one of them.' Terry Connor undergoes hospital tests for what could be appendicitis. Gwyn Thomas, pictured, named as an over-age player in Wales' Under-21 squad for a match against Yugoslavia, has to withdraw because of his broken hand.

December 7th

Bradford City approach Leeds to take on Trevor Cherry as their player-manager. 'We will not stand in his way,' says Eddie Gray. 'Trevor has reached the stage of his career when he is thinking about his future.' Cherry watches City in a League Trophy game at Millwall. Terry Connor leaves hospital after tests.

December 8th

Leeds and Bradford City officials hold further meetings over City's interest in Trevor Cherry.

December 9th

Cherry is thinking over an offer to take over the Bradford City player-manager's job after the clubs agree terms. Youngster John Sheridan signs a new contract after his successful start in the League side.

This is how the competition works. . . if the time of the first goal scored corresponds with the Golden Goal in your match programme, you will win £25.

If you have the time of the last goal scored you will win £5. There are eight possible winners and every goal between first and last will win £2.

If the game ends in a goalless draw, the match programme with the number 0000 will win £30 and if there's only one goal scored, the winner will receive £30.

All prize money will be paid out on goal times in an abandoned match — including when the score stands at 0-0.

The Courses will run over four days and will include detailed coaching on all aspects of the game from qualified FA coaches plus members of the Elland Road staff and players.

Visits to the ground will be an important part of the Courses and the facilities at Carnegie College are among the best in the country.

The Easter Course will run from Sunday 27th March to Thursday 31st March with the Summer Course operating between Sunday 24th July and Thursday 28th July. Last summer youngsters from all over Britain plus Canada and Israel took part but if you fancy the chance of improving your soccer skills then write off immediately for details and an application form, because only a limited number of places are available.

An application form can be obtained now from: The Finance Officer, Leeds Polytechnic, Intensive Courses Unit, Lawns House, Lawns Lane, Farnley, Leeds LS12 5ET. It would help if you could enclose a stamped addressed envelope.

CHEER UP TERRY

It has not been the best of spells for United striker Terry Connor, now on the mend after an emergency appendix operation. But Terry did have something to cheer him up just before Christmas when he won the Yorkshire award in the Robinson's Young Player of the Month competition for November.

Another recent United award winner, Kenny Burns, was presented with a Buxted Turkey before our home game with Shrewsbury as United's Player of the Month for November.

As part of the Buxted award, a number of turkeys were also presented to Dr Barnado's Homes in the Leeds area and arrived in good time for Christmas.

WOLVES TRAVEL

United complete the holiday fixtures with a visit to Wolves next Monday, kick-off 3 p.m. For supporters travelling by car the RAC suggest the following route: M62 west from Leeds to intersection 10, the junction with the M6. Travel south along the M6 to intersection 12, the A5 and then follow the A5 west for two miles, following the Wolverhampton signs. We welcome today's referee Mr Howard Taylor from Oadby, Leicester, to Elland Road this afternoon, his first visit to officiate at Leeds.
